

ELECTION IN THE CITY.

Less Than Six Thousand Votes Polled in All the Wards.

ALL THE DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATES LEAD

Ball, Lipscomb and Lea, Candidates with Opposition, Are Safe—The Bond Issue Carries.

On account of the apparent one-sidedness of the election in Houston and Harris county yesterday the voting in the city was very light at all the polling places. Not a single casualty of any sort occurred at any of the voting places and the whole day was as quiet and as orderly as the quietest Sunday. The presiding officers, judges and clerks of the several precincts in the city were as follows:

First ward, Grand Central hotel—William Meyer, presiding officer; Charles Erickson, Fred Erickson, J. E. Durkee, A. P. McCordale, William Gibbs, judges; O. Dupree, teller clerk; B. W. Oliphant, C. C. Richards, Robert Green, E. F. Batts, H. Griffin, H. L. Robinson, Dump Erickson, John Bell, L. Gordon, clerks; L. S. Dupree, C. A. McKinney, officers.

Second ward, No. 10 engine house—Dr. George W. Larendon, presiding officer; C. A. Culmore, S. Liscow, A. Cramer, Jr., judges; J. C. Hutchins, J. J. Cotton, R. Dourer, R. Rosenbath, J. O. Andrews, A. Cramer, Jr., Sam Taub, clerks.

Third ward, Turner hall—Frank Rue, presiding officer; William H. Fleg and P. F. Arman, judges; Dan Woodhead, L. Knapman, E. C. Marston, W. Lewis, L. Scheninger, J. Burns, John Bray, J. S. Stanley, E. N. Mills, John Hirsch, Paul Hobbs, — Delesinger, clerks.

Fourth ward, No. 8 engine house—S. E. Spence, presiding officer; W. W. Wines, J. P. Boyle, M. J. McKee, judges; R. A. Scurry, J. M. Meyer, J. B. Parker, L. G. Le Bert, A. Kleber, P. Hoenig, V. W. Rogers, W. F. Kahl, clerks.

Fifth ward, city council chamber—H. T. D. Wilson, presiding officer; J. C. Matzews, Erich Schmidt, Jr., L. S. Fawcett, judges; William McDaniel, Robert Cotter, J. E. Y. Ivy, John A. Dzier, Fred Burke, — Holmes, Ed Metcalf, Charles Scheninger, J. R. Quinby, Wm. Schultz, T. H. Franklin, — Jenson, George W. Gaines, clerks.

Sixth ward, warehouse, 814 Walnut street—P. O. Gagne, presiding officer; James McLaughlin, R. S. Abell, J. D. Wood, judges; Charles Leavemuth, Samuel Alexander, Tom Brown, R. A. Moore, Jerome Wood, clerks.

Seventh ward, Minister's hall—F. Proehl, presiding officer; H. Maroney, Henry Ross, judges; J. M. Hewson, J. C. Mueller, August Fashon, Will Lighthouse, Taylor Hillendahl, Will Conter, Sam Cronin, F. Minister, J. H. Schuler, clerks; J. M. Beech, R. M. Hedwine, C. Arbraugh, scrutineers.

"Well, Rastus, did you take those pills I gave you yesterday?" "Yes, sah; I took 'em; but say, boss, ef yo's gwine to give me any mo' to take, woun yo' put 'em in a smaller box? I had a mighty hard time to swallow dat las' box."

"Sweetheart, would you die for me?" "It wouldn't do you any good, darlin'. I'm not insured."

DEAD EASY.

"It's hard to be poor."

"No; it's rather easy; the hard part is to get rich."

CITY BRIEVITIES.

There will be a midweek prayer meeting at 7:45 o'clock this evening at the Central Christian church, corner of Capitol and Caroline.

The meeting of the Benedicks club announced yesterday evening by being thrown to a later date, which will be announced in the Post.

At 6 o'clock tomorrow morning Miss Celeste Budge and Mr. Jesse Andrews will be married at Christ church. Both are well known in this city.

There are undelivered telegrams at the Western Union Telegraph company's office for Miss Alice Taylor, W. L. Parkinson, Mrs. Y. Arsenius, T. H. Taylor, Allen Quarry.

John A. McNabb, Jr., photographer for Kirby & Dow, met with quite a painful accident yesterday evening by being thrown from a buggy, receiving some painful bruises about the head and face. The accident was caused by the horse shying at some object in the street.

Harry Carson Clarke in "Wast Did Tompkins?" played to a large audience yesterday afternoon at Sweeney & Combs' theater and the last performance of the engagement was given last night to what might be termed a decidedly complimentary house in view of the circumstances. Photographs of the storm sufferers, under the auspices of the Red Cross, were distributed as souvenirs at the matinee.

An entertainment will be given at Bryan hall tomorrow night for benefit of the Macreth storm sufferers, under the auspices of Houston tent No. 28. K. O. T. M. Galveston flood scenes and life motion pictures will be presented.
